

CARMEN DERRICOTT

Senior Recruitment Director

Carmen joins the team as a Senior Recruitment Director. Her role provides executive searches for clubs in Western Canada and Internationally.

Carmen is an experienced executive with an extensive range of senior roles within the Yacht & Sport sectors. Well-connected from coast to coast as well as internationally, her career includes more than 30 years of leadership roles in the Club industry.

“Carmen enhances our team at FG Club Solutions. Her experience with Yacht, City and Sporting Clubs will be a great value to our network of clubs needing recruiting experience from individuals who know how their operation works. In addition, with her original path through Administration and Accounting, this again expands our expertise in assisting clients with their needs. We look forward to collaborating with Carmen and incorporating her extensive knowledge in the club industry.

TRACK RECORD IN THE INDUSTRY

Carmen began her love of the Private Club industry in the 1980s where she was senior accountant at the Royal Glenora Club in Edmonton Alberta. She joined the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club in 1989 (remaining with RVYC until her retirement in 2020) first as Controller then being promoted to General Manager in 2000. She achieved Honour Society and CCM designations with CSCM. In 2018 Club of the Year and Platinum Clubs of the World Status.

She was influential in the process of making RVYC one of the founding Clubs of the International Council of Yacht Clubs – a forum where yacht clubs world wide meet to learn from one another, expand international relations for Club and Member benefit and enhancement. Carmen travelled extensively – expanding her private club knowledge and network. In recent years, Carmen was the ICOYC Board of Directors as Treasurer.
